		4. Payment of legal fees to counsel for the debtor shall be made on a monthly basis from funds remaining after payment of trustee compensation, adequate protection payments, and equal monthly installments payments to creditors holding allowed secured claims against personal property. Legal fees shall be paid ahead of all claims for mortgage arrears, claims secured by real estate, and priority debts unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

3. Payment of Other Priority Claims

a. The debtor shall make full payment to the following priority claims

Creditor Amount Interest Rate

b. The debtor shall make payment to priority claims allowed under 11 U.S.C. §507(a)(1)(B) in accordance with 11 U.S.C §1322(a)(4). Any amounts not paid on such shall survive the discharge of the debtor(s)

Creditor Amount

c. Payments on priority claims shall be made only after completion of payments on account of allowed administrative claims of the Chapter 13 trustee and counsel for the debtor, as well as payment of all allowed secured claims of any kind.

4. Payment of Secured Claims

- a. General Provisions
 - 1. The holder of each allowed secured claim provided for below shall retain the lien securing such claim until the earlier of: (a) the payment of the underlying debt determined under applicable non-bankruptcy law or (b) discharge under Section 1328
 - 2. Notwithstanding the provisions contained in 11 U.S.C. §1325(a)(5)(B)(iii)(I), the Chapter 13 Trustee shall not be required to make payments to holders of allowed secured claims in fixed monthly installments. [Strict compliance with 11 U.S.C. §1325(a)(5)(B)(iii)(I) might render the practical administration of the Plan impossible. For example, if the debtor remits a partial plan payment in an amount less than the "equal monthly installment" required by 11 U.S.C. §1325(a)(5)(B)(iii)(I), then the Chapter 13 Trustee would be compelled to pay all the funds received to the secured creditor and would not be able to pay allowed administrative claims, including Chapter 13 Trustee commissions. Similarly, if the debtor remits a larger-than-required monthly plan payment, the Trustee could not make payment to the secured creditor in excess of the required "equal monthly installment," thus causing the secured claim to accrue additional interest needlessly or perhaps requiring the excess funds to be paid to unsecured creditors].

- 3. For purposes of 11 U.S.C. §1325(a)(5)(B)(iii)(II), the holder of an allowed claim secured by personal property shall be conclusively deemed to be adequately protected throughout the term of the Plan so long as such creditor has received payment according to the following formula: total allowed secured claim divided by sixty multiplied by number of months elapsed since filing of the plan. However, this provision shall not effect the right of any party in interest to file a motion to dismiss the debtor's case for non-payment.
- 4. Notwithstanding the provisions contained in 11 U.S.C. §1326(a)(1)(C), the Trustee (not the debtor) shall make pre-confirmation adequate protection payments to holders of allowed claims secured by personal property.
- 5. Claims for mortgage arrears and other claims secured by real estate shall be paid to the extent practicable in equal monthly installments commencing in the month after legal fees to debtor's counsel have been paid in full.
- 6. This plan shall constitute the debtor's motion to approve payment of secured claims in the manner specified herein, including valuation of personal property, interest rate, and proposed monthly installments.
- 7. In the event a pre-confirmation claim for mortgage arrears is filed in an amount greater than specified in the Plan, the debtor(s) shall have the option of allowing confirmation to proceed by increasing plan payments or duration as needed to provide for full payment of the claim. However, confirmation of the Plan shall not prevent the debtor from filing an objection to claim subsequent to confirmation for any reason, including objections based on excessive legal fees or costs imposed by the lender, improperly calculated arrears of principal and interest, and improperly claimed escrow advances.
